Oxley, Combest Would Support Extended Comment on Single-Stock Futures Rule

House Financial Services Committee Chairman Michael G. Oxley (OH) was joined by House Agriculture Committee Chairman Larry Combest (TX) today in supporting an extended comment period for proposed rules on the trading of security futures products if regulatory agencies concur it would be necessary.

A letter sent by the chairmen to Securities and Exchange Commission Chairman Harvey Pitt and Commodity Futures Trading Commission Chairman James E. Newsome is attached (Click here to see letter).
